We are a premier recovery home for the person recovering from addiction of chemical, alcohol abuse or integration into society.

Our homes are 4 bedrooms with 2 baths, approximately 2,000 square feet and have large lots. Each property has two refrigerators, microwave, coffee maker, toaster oven, washer and dryer (included in the program fee, not coin operated), laundry soap, body shampoo, dish soap, hand soap, towels, bedding, pillows, Utilities and telephone, ceiling fans in each room, digital satellite TV for entertainment, exercise equipment, a computer to explore the internet, all furniture, beds and chests for each program participant. All included in the program fee. Kokopelli does not supply food.
The program fee is $110 per week, from Friday through Thursday, or prorated at $15.72 per day for someone who comes in during mid week. There is also a Security Deposit of $110. There are no extra or hidden fees.

Kokopelli Group Home desires to help the perspective program participants as much as possible. We do have a few admission rules that must be discussed. All program participants must accept the Program Agreement, including the Home Rules, Crime Free Addendum, and complete the Program Participant Information Forms. All program participants must be employable and willing to work, unless subsidized and then they should be performing community service to occupy their time. All program participants should be involved with substance abuse or mental health counseling and attend appropriate meetings to maintain their recovery program.

Kokopelli has three (3) basic rules:

1. Use common sense.
2. Work your recovery program.
3. Do not use alcohol, drugs, or other forms of addiction.

Note: These rules have been expanded in our agreement to eliminate confusion

If the program participant does not have a regular job, then the program participant must report for “day labor” the next day after admission, and the program participant will turn the daily paycheck into the Kokopelli Manager. The manager will keep out the daily program fees (normally 2 days worth at $15.72 per day. The day labor will be for Monday through Thursday. Friday can be reserved for taking care of personal business or looking for steady employment. There is not usually day labor on Saturday or Sunday, so those days can also be used for personal time and looking for a job.

All program participant’s are required to pay fees prior to coming to Kokopelli. Participants that do not have the complete fees, must sign the Power of Attorney form to have the program participant’s pay sent directly to Kokopelli. This form will be delivered to the employer. The Power of Attorney will be in effect until the program participant fees are caught up and the security deposit paid. Kokopelli will hold out the weekly fees and any prorated amount, and return the difference to the program participant.
